Here, on Sinfully Spicy, you will find the food that I grew up with, it could be my mother's signature dal makhani to grandmother's gujiya or my aunt's rogan josh. My recipes have slowly, over the years started representing the influence of my living in the Las Vegas, United States and the variety of produce and ingredients available here in stores, locally and artisanal, that I find ...

The best example was a family favorite called "sinfully delicious dessert." Don't get me wrong, it was delicious; but sinful? Not so much. My poor friends and relatives would then have to deal with me going on for a bit about how food is neither inherently good nor bad and how it's all about moderation and balance.
