Growing Up Jung: Coming of Age as the Son of Two Shrinks. By Micah Toub. “Archotypically, as a Jungian would say, my coming-of-age story is just like yours,” states Micah Toub in the introduction to his memoir about growing up the son of two Jungian therapists. And yet his parents’ unbearably (and for the reader hilariously) idiosyncratic approach to parenting is anything but familiar, which is precisely what makes this childhood viewed through the lens of Jungian ideas and concepts so ...
