Last Stand Surviving Americas Collapse

I was actually saving William H. Weber's first novel, Last Stand: Surviving America's Collapse for my upcoming cruise. However, once I started this post-apocalyptic story, I couldn't put the darn thing down. Set in a suburban Tennessee neighborhood, when America comes under a nuclear-EMP-attack, ...

Ultimately, Last Stand: Surviving America's Collapse (Kindle ed.) was fun to read but also exposes the sad reality of what life could well be like after an EMP event. It's sobering to think about. Regardless, the book is still a fun read and if you're looking for a new survival novel to get your hands on, try this one.
