International Politics A theory of international relations is a set of ideas that explains how the international system works. Unlike an ideology, a theory of international relations is (at least in principle) backed up with concrete evidence. The two major theories of international relations are realism and liberalism.

This book develops a discourse theory of crisis and change in global politics. Crisis is conceptualized as
structural dislocation,
resting on difference
and incompleteness.
Change is seen as the continuous but
ultimately futile effort
to gain a full identity.
The incompleteness
